

The Good Road is a COCC college-prep course offered in local high schools throughout Central Oregon that prepares Native American students and allies for success in high school, college, and beyond. The course emphasizes academic success strategies, leadership development, and cultural knowledge and pride. Students will also be introduced to college resources, scholarship writing practice, and financial literacy for success in college or wherever their paths may lead.

Find more information on The Good Road: The Good Road - Central Oregon Community College \(cocc.edu\) or email Geneva Mayall at gmayall2@cocc.edu

L.E.A.D: Legacy Education for Afrocentric Development. The primary goal of L.E.A.D is to encourage students who identify as Black, Afro-Latino, African descent, LBGTQ, and their allies to graduate from high school and pursue a well-rounded education, apprenticeships, which contributes to becoming productive members of our community and beyond.

The program will offer a diverse curriculum that integrates leadership and culturally relevant themes for students from all ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

For more information on L.E.A.D: L.E.A.D- Central Oregon Community College \(cocc.edu\) or email Marcus LeGrand at mlegrand2@cocc.edu ¡AVANZA! is a college prep class for Latinx High School students and for all other High School students interested in learning about Latino culture. Students will learn about communication skills, team building, leadership skills, public speaking, cultural pride, and self-care; this last one is very important and necessary during this time. This class is very interactive. We will have fun while learning about ourselves, our community, and about the transition into College.

¡AVANZA! es una clase de preparación universitaria para estudiantes Latinos de escuela secundaria y para otros estudiantes interesados en aprender la cultura Latinx. En esta clase, aprenderemos sobre habilidades de comunicación, formación de equipos, habilidades de liderazgo, hablar en público, orgullo cultural y cuidado personal; este último muy importante y necesario durante este tiempo. Esta clase es muy interactiva. Nos divertimos mientras aprendemos sobre nosotros mismos, nuestra comunidad y sobre la transición a la universidad.

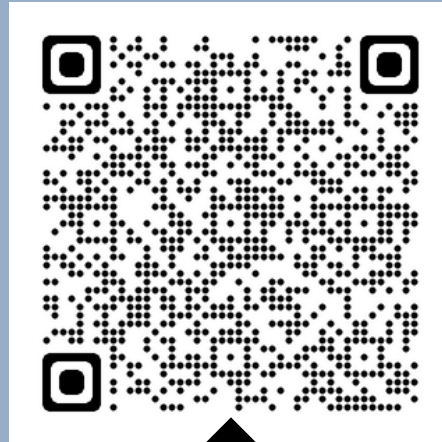

For more information on ¡AVANZA! Visit: ¡AVANZA! - Central Oregon Community College \(cocc.edu\) or email Claudia Bisso-Fetzer, PhD at cbissofetzer@cocc.edu

Each of the (3) courses meets weekly and separately for 10 weeks and if successfully completed, students will earn a college credit.

Cada uno de estos tres cursos se reunirán semanalmente y separadamente por 10 semanas. Al término exitoso en el programa, el estudiante recibirá un crédito universitario.

Central Oregon Community College

Cultural Leadership Classes

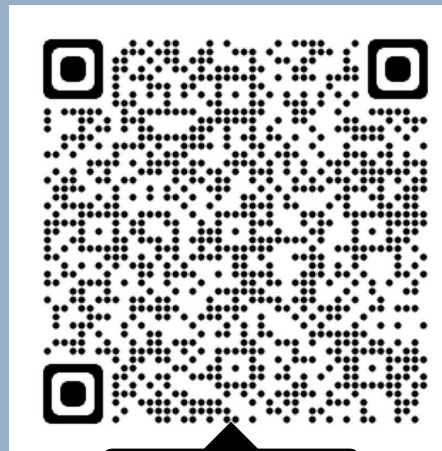

SCAN HERE

Scan QR codes to find info on each program

SCAN HERE

SCAN HERE