

Except when exempt by Oregon law, all children between the ages of 6 and 18 who have not completed the 12th grade are required to regularly attend a public, full-time school during the entire school term. Persons having legal control of a child between the ages of 6 and 18, who has not completed the 12th grade, are required to send the child to school and maintain the child in regular attendance during the entire school term.

All children five years of age who have been enrolled in public school are required to attend regularly while enrolled in public school. Persons having legal control of a child, who is five years of age and who have enrolled the child in a public school, are required to send the child to school and maintain the child in regular attendance during the school term.

School staff shall monitor and report any violation of the compulsory attendance law to the superintendent or designee.

A parent/legal guardian who is not supervising their child by requiring school attendance may also be in violation of Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 163.577(1)(c). Failing to supervise a child is a Class A violation.

Exemptions from Compulsory School Attendance

In the following cases, children shall not be required to attend public, full-time schools:

1. Children being taught in a private or parochial school in courses of study usually taught in kindergarten through grade 12 in the public schools, and in attendance for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools.
2. Children proving to the Board's satisfaction that they have acquired equivalent knowledge to that acquired in the courses of study taught in kindergarten through grade 12 in the public schools.
3. Children who have received a high school diploma or a modified diploma.
4. Children being taught, by a private teacher, the courses of study usually taught in kindergarten through grade 12 in the public school for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools.
5. Children being educated in the home by a parent, legal guardian, or private teacher:
 - a. When a student is taught or is withdrawn from a public school to be taught by a parent/legal guardian or private teacher, the parent/legal guardian or private teacher must notify the High Desert Education Service District (ESD) in writing within 10 days of such occurrence. In addition, when a home-schooled student moves to a new ESD, the parent/legal guardian shall notify the new ESD in writing, within 10 days, of the intent to continue home schooling. The ESD shall acknowledge receipt of any notification in writing within 90 days of receipt of the notification. The ESD is to notify, at least annually, school districts of home-schooled students who reside in their district;
 - b. Each student being taught as described above shall be examined no later than August 15, following grades 3, 5, 8 and 10:
 - i. If the student was withdrawn from public school, the first examination shall be administered at least 18 months after the date the student withdrew from public school;
 - ii. If the student never attended public or private school, the first examination shall be administered prior to the end of grade 3.
 - c. Procedures for home-schooled students with disabilities are set out in Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 581-021-0029.
 - d. Examinations testing each child shall be from the list of approved examinations from the State Board of Education;
 - e. The examination must be administered by a neutral individual qualified to administer tests on the approved list provided by the Oregon Department of Education;
 - f. The person administering the examination shall score the examination and report the results to the parent/legal guardian. Upon request of the ESD superintendent, the parent/legal guardian shall submit the results of the examination to the ESD;
 - g. All costs for the test instrument, administration and scoring are the responsibility of the parent/legal guardian;

- h. In the event the ESD superintendent finds that the child is not showing satisfactory educational progress, the ESD superintendent shall follow the guidelines in Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules.
6. Children whose sixth birthday occurred on or before September 1 immediately preceding the beginning of the current school year, if the parent/legal guardian notified the child’s resident district in writing that the parent/legal guardian is delaying the enrollment of their child for one school year to better meet the child’s needs for cognitive, social or physical development, as determined by the parent/legal guardian.
 7. Children who are present in the United States on a nonimmigrant visa and who are attending a private, accredited English language learner program in preparation for attending a private high school or college.
 8. Children excluded from attendance as provided by law.
 9. Children who are eligible military children are exempt up to 10 days after the date of military transfer or pending transfer indicated in the official military order. “Military child” means a child who is in a military family covered by the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children, as determined under rules adopted by the State Board of Education.
 10. An exemption may be granted to the parent/legal guardian of any child 16 or 17 years of age who is lawfully employed full-time, or who is lawfully employed part-time and enrolled in school, a community college or an alternative education program as defined in ORS 336.615.
 11. An exemption may be granted to any child who is an emancipated minor or who has initiated the procedure for emancipation under ORS 419B.550 to 419B.558.
